1911-041 Chancery Causes: J. C. Noel &c vs. Floyd Owens + wife
Lee Co

Orr

CA-Debt
T-Property

Virginia.

To the Honorable H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia.

Humbly complaining your orators, J. C. Noel and James W. Orr, would respectfully represent and show unto your honor that Floyd Owens and Cynthia Owens, his wife, are justly indebted to your orators in the sum of ($100.00) one hundred dollars, with interest thereon from the 8th day of May, 1911, until paid, which is evidenced by a note under seal executed by them on that day to your orators for said sum, in which note they waive the benefir of their homestead exemption. And in said note to secure the payment thereof said obligators gave to your orators a lien upon the tract of land owned by them in Lee County, Virginia, on Blackwater, containing forty or forty-five acres. The title thereof to said land being in the said Cynthia Owens, which said note is herewith filed as a part hereof marked exhibit No. "1" and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill. No part of which note has been paid. And there are no other liens against said land.

Now the object of this suit is to collect from the said Floyd Owens and Cynthia Owens the amount of the said note, and to accomplish this purpose, to have the lien given in said note upon said land enforced and the said tract of land, or a sufficiency thereof, sold for the purpose of paying the amount of said note, and the interest thereon, together with the costs of this suit. To this end your orators make the said Floyd Owens and Cynthia Owens party defendants to this bill and ask that they be required to answer the same, but they need not do so under oath, answer under oath being waived, and upon a hearing they pray that the relief above asked be granted, together with all such other, further and general relief as may be suitable ~~to~~ to their cause. And your orators will ever pray, etc.
